

The action plan for the Education Strategy Ahus 2017-2030

Strategic objective 1 Competence through targeted and systematic education	Strategic objective 2 Ahus is an innovative learning and practice arena	Strategic objective 3 Ahus is an important actor in cooperation for good education	Strategic objective 4 Strengthened education and university function
Suggested sub-goals: Strengthened competence targets	Suggested sub-goals: Strengthen competence in clinical guidance	Suggested sub-goals: Ahus as a leading arena for future healthcare workers	Suggested sub-goals: Strengthen subject and research competence within all subject groups
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Contribute to assessing future competence needs, whether in the form of basic education, further education or more task-specific training activities in relation to e.g. job slippage. ➤ Assist in the work of bringing new subject areas into the health profession (such as technology, service design, logistics, etc.) through practice and assignments. ➤ Contribute to the collaboration with the educational institutions to ensure a better connection between theory and practice (preparation for working life). 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Contribute to strengthening the competence for clinical supervision, both in the educational institutions and in the clinic (time, hospitalization, education and research). ➤ Assist in linking the field of practice and the teaching institutions more closely together with more holistic educational courses where there is a common thread in the guidance between practice, theory and work goals during the practice periods. ➤ Assist in relation to the piloting of various practice models and research into their effects. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Contribute to defining the health service of the future. ➤ Assist in highlighting all the opportunities our students and staff have access to at Ahus (various subject areas, educations, courses, professional development, improvement work, research). ➤ Assist in finding new channels to reach out to future and existing students. ➤ Contribute to active participation in career days, subject-specific student groups and other student events. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Assist with involving students in professional development, improvement work or research projects already early in their studies. ➤ Assist in creating a topic bank for students who will write assignments where both students and companies build the necessary knowledge. ➤ Contribute to helping managers with employees with research expertise in relation to using this expertise.